

RULES OF ADMISSION AND PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT GOVERNING THE PRACTICE OF ATTORNEYS FOR THE BLUE LAKE RANCHERIA TRIBAL COURT

Section 11.1.1030 of the Tribal Court Ordinance of the Blue Lake Rancheria (“Tribe”) authorizes the Chief Judge of the Tribal Court for the Tribe, in consultation with the Business Council of the Tribe (“Tribal Council”), to “promulgate rules of pleading, practice and procedure applicable to any and all proceedings of the Tribal Court.” The following rules are adopted to govern civil proceedings initiated in the Tribal Court.

The following rules are intended to regulate the professional conduct of members of the Bar of the Tribal Court through discipline. These rules together with any standards adopted by the Tribal Council pursuant to ordinance, shall be binding upon all members of the Tribal Bar.

For a willful breach of any of these rules, the Chief of Presiding Judge of the Tribal Court shall have the power to discipline members of the Tribal Bar as provided herein.

Nothing in these rules shall be deemed to create, augment, diminish or eliminate any substantive legal duty imposed upon any lawyer or the consequences of violating such a duty imposed upon any lawyer or the consequences of violating such a duty imposed by any other federal, state or tribal law.

A member shall not act as an advocate before a jury or judge which will hear testimony from the member unless;

- (a) The testimony relates to an uncontested matter; or
- (b) The testimony relates to the nature and value of legal services rendered in the case; or
- (c) The member has the informed, written consent of the client. If a member represents the Tribe or a governmental entity, the consent shall be obtained from the head of the office or a designee of the head of the office by which the member is employed and shall be consistent with the principles of recusal.

Rule 11. Contact with Officials

- (a) A member shall not directly or indirectly give or lend anything of value to a judge, official, or employee of a tribunal unless the personal or family relationship between the member and the judge, official or employee is such that gifts are customarily given and exchanged. Nothing contained in this rule shall prohibit the member from providing a gift to a Tribal Judge as a result of the Tribal Judge presiding over or participating in a Tribal Ceremony where such gift is customarily given in accordance with Tribal Custom and tradition.
- (b) A member shall not directly or indirectly communicate with or argue to a judge or judicial officer upon the merits of a contested matter pending before such judge or judicial officer except;
 - (1) In open court; or
 - (2) With the consent of all other counsel in such matter; or

- (3) In the presence of all other counsel in such matter; or
- (4) In writing with a copy thereof furnished to such other counsel; or
- (5) Where ex parte communications are expressly authorized by law or by a rule of the Tribal Court.

(c) As used in this rule, “judge”, “judicial officer”, shall include law clerks, research attorneys, or other court personnel who participate in the decision-making process.

Chapter 6

Disciplinary Action

Rule:

12 Complaint Procedure

13 Disciplinary Action

Rule 12. Complaint Procedure.

Any person believing that a member has violated any rule contained herein may file a complaint with the Chief or Presiding Judge of the Tribal Court on a form provided by the Tribal Court Clerk for that purpose. Upon receipt of the complaint, the Chief or Presiding Judge shall issue an order to show cause why disciplinary action should be imposed. The order shall recite the nature of the complaint against the member and shall provide the member with 14 days advance notice of the day and time set for the hearing on the complaint. At the hearing the burden shall be on the member to prove, based upon a preponderance of the evidence, that the member did not violate these rules. At the conclusion of the hearing, if the Chief or Presiding Judge determines, based upon satisfactory evidence, that the member has violated these rules, the Chief or Presiding Judge may impose disciplinary action upon the member as set forth in Rule 13 below.

Rule 13. Disciplinary Action.

For any violation of these rules, the Chief or Presiding Judge shall have the authority to impose monetary sanctions upon the member and/or temporarily or permanently disbar the member from practicing before the Tribal Court.

Chapter 7

Eligibility and Admission to the Bar

Rule:

14 Eligibility for Admission to Practice

15 Procedure for Admission

16 Suspension for Disbarment

17 Disciplinary Power of the Court Over Attorneys

Rule 14. Eligibility for Admission to Practice.

An attorney who has been admitted to practice before a court of any federally recognized Indian Tribe or the United States Supreme Court, or the highest Court of a State, or any United States Court of Appeal, or any United States District court and who has read the Rules of Evidence, Pleading, Practice and Procedure, and Tribal Court Ordinance of the Tribe, and who is of good moral and professional character, is eligible for admission to the bar of the Tribal Court of the Tribe.

Rule 15. Procedure of Admission.

An applicant for admission shall file with the Clerk of the Tribal Court, on a form approved by the Court and furnished by the Clerk, an application for admission containing the applicant’s personal statement showing eligibility for membership. At the bottom of the application, the applicant shall take and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation:

I, _____, do solemnly swear(or affirm) that I have read the Rules of Evidence, Rules of Pleading, Practice and Procedure and Tribal Court Ordinance of the Blue Lake Rancheria Tribe. I will demean myself as an attorney and counselor of the Blue Lake Rancheria Tribal Court accordingly to the laws of the Tribe, and that I will support the Constitution of the Blue Lake Rancheria.

Thereafter, upon written or oral motion of the applicant, the Court will act upon the application. An applicant may be admitted by oral motion in open court, but it is not necessary that the applicant appear before the Court for the purpose of being admitted, unless the Court shall otherwise order. An applicant shall, upon making application for admission, pay to the Clerk a fee prescribed by rule or order of the Court or by resolution of the Tribal Council of the Tribe.

Rule 16. Suspension or Disbarment.

When it is shown to the Court that any member of the bar has been guilty of conduct unbecoming to a member of the bar of the Court, the member will be subject to suspension or disbarment by the Court. The member shall be afforded an opportunity to show good cause, within the time provided in Rule 12 above, why the member should not be suspended or disbarred. Upon the member's response to the order to show cause, after hearing, if requested, or upon expiration of the time prescribed for a response if no response is made, the Court shall enter an appropriate order.

Rule 17. Disciplinary Power of the Court Over Attorneys.

The Court may, after reasonable notice and an opportunity to show cause to the contrary, and after hearing, if requested, take any appropriate disciplinary action against any attorney who practices before it for conduct unbecoming a member of the bar or for failure to comply with these rules or any rule of the Court.

ORDER

These rules shall take effect and govern all members or actions of members in all proceedings in the Tribal Court on or after April 1st, 2007.

/s/ Lester J. Marson
Chief Judge of the Tribal Court

ATTESTED:

/s/ Elizabeth J. Jackson
Clerk of the Tribal Court
