

Hazardous Materials Training:

- First Responder Operational Decontamination

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This 8-hour course includes a classroom session on principles of responder, patient, and mass casualty decontamination followed by hands-on setup and practice using locally available equipment and supplies.

COURSE DATES, TIMES AND LOCATION:

Thursday, April 7, 2022
08:00 to 17:00
Blue Lake Rancheria Fire Department
Blue Lake Rancheria, CA 95525

COST:

This course is provided free of charge through the Blue Lake Rancheria Resiliency Training & Innovation Center (RTIC)

EMS CE: Those successfully completing this training are eligible to receive 8 hours of Continuing Education Credits from PCTI, EMS CE Provider #64-5306.

Nursing CE: Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing Provider #CEP 15211 for 8 Contact Hours.

Environmental Health Specialist CE: This course is approved for 8 hours of continuing education credit by Preparedness Consulting & Training, Int'l., a California DPH Accredited Agency for California Registered Environmental Health Specialists.

Training provided by Preparedness Consulting & Training, Int'l., Weaverville, California

To enroll or for more information contact:

RTIC

Resiliency Training & Innovation Center

707-668-5101 x1049

rtic@bluelakerancheria-nsn.gov